PRESS RELEASE

TASK INCREASES BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT TEAM

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - Burnaby, February 7, 2011: TASK Construction Management is pleased to announce the addition of Antonio (Tony) Niro and Dave Curtis to the TASK Construction Team, effective February 7, 2011.

Tony is an architect (member of OAQ) with a strong background in Project Management and has most recently held the position of Executive Program Manager – Partner, of his solely-owned Antonio Niro Consultants Inc. His portfolio includes the recognizable Nortel St-Laurent Campus, Bell Centre, Montreal W-Hotel, and Montreal's premier skyscraper – 1250 Boul. Rene Levesque.

Relocating from Quebec, Tony will be taking on the role of Vice President of Business Development for TASK and through his experience and contacts will be helping to broaden TASK's scope to include large-scale commercial construction (office buildings, hotels, industrial and retail).

Dave has over 30 years of Business Development experience representing firms such as the United Way of the Lower Mainland; MHPM Project Managers Inc., and Stantec Consulting Ltd. In addition, Dave has also successfully managed his own company in the industrial distribution sector for 16 years and was President and General Manager of the Amarillo Rattlers in the Western Professional Hockey League.

Dave is joining TASK in the capacity of Business Development Manager and will be using his Business Development skills gathered from the construction and professional sports industry to further strengthen TASK's traditional market presence in public recreation facilities, aquatic centres, arenas, performing arts, conference centres and resorts.
